

Office of Evaluation Sciences Fall 2021 Event

OES@100: Celebrating 100 Collaborations Across Government

Tuesday, November 16, 2021 | 1:00 PM – 2:30 PM EST

Zoom Webinar

1:00 pm Welcome and Introduction

Kelly Bidwell, General Services Administration
Robin Carnahan, General Services Administration Administrator

1:06 pm Session 1: What leads to a successful evaluation? Reflections from 100 OES collaborations

Pompa Debroy, General Services Administration
Elana Safran, General Services Administration
Mary Clair Turner, General Services Administration
Michael Hand, General Services Administration
Jasper Cooper, General Services Administration

1:32 pm Session 2: Portfolio of evidence on equity and economic recovery

Crystal Hall, General Services Administration and University of Washington
Brittany Borg, Small Business Administration
Jason Bossie, Small Business Administration
Julia Brown, General Services Administration and University of Maryland
Clarence Wardell III, White House Domestic Policy Council
Exodie Roe, General Services Administration
Andrea O'Neal, General Services Administration

1:59 pm Session 3: New frontier for evidence in government: what's next?

Cass Sunstein, Department of Homeland Security and Harvard University
Christina Eller, White House Office of Science and Technology
Pam Coleman, Office of Management and Budget
Jeanne Holm, City of Los Angeles

2:26 pm Closing Remarks

Krystal J. Brumfield, General Services Administration